

On Wednesday, March 8th, come join us
for Dinner and to hear our Guest Speaker:

Tom Pauls

Presenting:

Job Search: Strategies for Supply Chain & Logistics Professionals

Presentation Summary:

Have you ever had to apply for a job? Ever had to write a resume? Are you interested in gaining some tips on how to present yourself more effectively in an interview?

Join us for an interactive session on how to conduct a job search, how to write a resume that will grab the interviewer's attention, and how to present your skills and experience as effectively as possible.

Even if you're not looking for a career change, most organizations require an updated resume and a formal interview before offering you a promotion, so there should be something in this presentation for everyone.

About the Speaker:

Tom Pauls has over 14 years of experience in recruitment, with 11 years focused exclusively on the Supply Chain and Logistics sector. He has developed and delivered training tools specifically for supply chain and logistics professionals and has helped hundreds of individuals to improve their careers.

Tom is the founder and Managing Director of SCL Search Consultants Ltd., a recruitment and staffing consulting firm based out of Mississauga, dedicated to helping their clients identify and hire the top talent in Supply chain and logistics across Canada.
